Schooner Sarah C. Tyler Ashere Near Newort News Const Strewn With Wreckage of Oyster Vessels.

NORFOLK, VA., Oct. 16.-Special.-Information as to marine disasters during the recent storm is now coming in at a

The schooner Sarah C. Tyler, Captain Curry, from Claremont to Baltimore, with lumber, anchored in Hampton Roads on the night of the 11th, and on the 13th she dragged so badly that the crew was obliged to slip the chains and try to put the vessel to sea. She was blown ashore near Newport News, and is now full of near Newport News, and is now full of water. Both anchors and about one hundred fathoms of chain were lost.

The bark Ravenswood, ashore at Chicamleomico, is high on the beach in a bad condition and full of water.

Captain S. J. Ward, of the schooner J. S. Barnes, from Washington, D. C., to Western Branch, with barrels, lost his deck load, about four hundred and fifty, on the night of the 13th.

Captain Bartlett, of the tug Mars, from New York, lost the barges Nereus and Juniata on the night of the 13th, but picked them up again the next morning.

The schooners Wade Hampton, Pilgrim and James E. King and the sloops Dorado, Sea Lark and Mary Cotton are ashore at Murberry Island, Warwick county. At Mulberry point four small schooners are also ashore. The shore is strewn with the wreckage of small oyster boats. The recent storm was terrific in this locality.

AN EXCITING EPISODE.

A Member of a Colored Band Creates Trouble in the Mayor's Court.

PETERSBURG, VA., Oct. 16.-Special .-Quite an exciting episode occured in the Mayor's Court room this morning during the examination of Joseph Sherwood and the examination of Joseph Sherwood and Sam Delaney, members of Sherwood's negro band of musicians. The former was charged with using profane language in the presence of ladies on the street Sat-urday night last, and the latter with in-timidating Police Officer Sandford while in the discharge of his duties. During the in the discharge of his duties, During the examination of Delaney he contradicted a statement made by Deputy High Constable Pillow in his testimony, and, losing his temper. Mr. Pillow drew back as if about to strike Delaney. The affair creatabout to strike Delaney. The affair created much excitement, as at one time it looked as if there would be a serious row.

The court room was crowded with white and colored spectators, many of whom rushed from the room, through the door, while others leaped from the windows. The police interfered and order was soon restored and the examination of the case proceeded with Sherwood was fined $5 and costs and Delayer was sent on to the proceeded with Sherwood was fined is and costs, and Delayey was sent on to the Hustings Court to answer the charge of interfering with and intimidating Officer Sandford while in the discharge of his duty. He gave ball for his appearance. The representatives from Petersburg to the Synod of Virginia, which meets in annual session at Lexington are; Rev. J.

W. Rosebro, D. D., pastor of Tabb-street Presbyterian church; Rev. S. K. Winn, pastor of the Second church; Rev. Floyd L. Kurtz, pastor of Old-street church, and Messrs. O. B. Morgan, and John R. Pat-

The quarterly meeting of the Methodist Sunday School Union Association, of Pe tersburg and Ettrick, Chesterfield county, was held yesterday afternoon at Market-street M. E. church. An interesting adess was made by Rev. W. A. R. Good-

There was considerable frost this morning .

The passenger trains from the North and West yesterday were from three to seven

West yesterday were from three to seven hours behind schedule time.

The civil service board here was in-formed to-day by the civil service board in Washington that at the examinations held in Piersburg August 5th and Sep-tember 3th John R. Belcher passed a satisfactory examination for the position of clerk, and James T. Ashby for the place of letter carrier.

Mrs. Joseph Parrish, of Atlanta, Georgia, is here on a visit to her sister, Mrs.

E. B. Morse, on Adams street. Mrs. Parrish formerly resided in Petersburg.

The pay car of the Atlantic Coast Line arrived here to-day, when the employes of the road at this end of the line were paid off.

There was a largely attended political meeting at Dinwiddie Courthouse to-day, and a division of time was arranged for between the Democratic and Populist speakers. The discussion was opened by Judge W. Hodges Mann, of Nottoway county, for the Democrats, who was followed by Mr. J. B. Stovall, of Halifax, who make for the Populist. who spoke for the Populists. The dis-cussion was closed by Hon. William B. McIlwaine, of Petersburg, the Democratic mominee for the State Senate from this district. The speeches were all heard with the closest attention.

The Populists of Dinwiddle held a legislative convention at the county court-house to-day and nominated Captain house to day and nominated Captain Doyle for the House of Delegates. The chairman of the convention was author-ized to appoint sixteen delegates to the senatorial convention, to be held here on Wednesday next to nominate a candidate for the State Senate from this district. Mrs. Fanny Lake, of Denver, Col., who before marriage was Miss Bullifant, of Petersburg, was taken suddenly and se-riously ill at her mother's residence, in

IN PAYOR OF WASHINGTON AND LEE Came Yesterday Between This Team and

LEXINGTON, VA., Oct. 16.-Special .-Washington and Lee University and the Staunton teams played a deeply interesting game of foot-ball here this evening. Neither side scored the first half. The Staunton team is a very much better

The Scaunton team is a very much better team than was looked for.

The feature of the game was with Mitchell, of Washington and Lee, dewn on the ground with the ball. Fultz, of Stauntons, rushed up and asked him for it. Mitchell, thinking Fultz was a Washington and Lee man, gave Fultz the ball and he scored for Staunton. He made the goal easily, assisted by Starke. Halves—Twenty minutes. Line up.

the goal
the goal
Halves-Twenty minutes.

Wash, and Lee. Positions. Staumton.
Quaries. Left End. Summerson
McCaleb
McCaleb
McNear. Left Tacklo McCaleb
Wilso
Williams Left Guard Stration
Wilso
Right Guard Horn
Right Guard Horn
Right Guard Horn
Right Guard Tayls

Attendance-two hundred. Touchdowns-Marshall and Mitchell, Washington and Lee; Fullz, Staunton, Goals from touch-downs-Bullitt, Washington and Lee. Score-10 to 8, in favor of Washington and Lee University Umpire - Avis. Referee-Wise, of Virginia Military In-

SOUTHWESTERN ORES.

Mountains in Their Superb Fall

Dress.

PULASKI, VA., Oct 14.—Special.—Mr.
M. H. Calfer has been nominated for the Senate by the Populists. Doubtless a citizen of Glies will be nominated for the House. I have not been able to learn what the Republicans of this section will do in this election. It is runnered that what the Republicans of this section will do in this election. It is rumored that some of the leaders of this place will vote the Prohibition ticket.

Our furnaces are still at working heat, and more ore is being shipped from the Cripple Crock region.

The frost of this season is late putting in an appearance, and in the meantime our meadows never looked greener or richer. The mountains are simply superb in their varigated fail dress. The colors and shapes are those of last fail, but are none the less beautiful by reason of that. The sunshine of this morning differed not from the sunshine of Eden but though red, was not the less cheerful and life giving. Richmond must understand why we were not at the Fair of '33. Chicago captured all of the money, and then reduced railroad rates would not allow of the second trip. Thanks for the "Times" in the morning of its publication.

READY FOR THE SYNOD.

Lexington People Will Give Delegates a Warm Welcome.

LEXINGTON, VA., Oct. 16 .- Special .-The ommittee of Arrangements of the Lexington Presbyterian church, having in

The ommittee of Arrangements of the Lexington Presbyterian church, having in charge the programme of the one hundred and sixth annual session of the Virginia Synod that opens here to-morrow night, and the reception of the delegates, have about completed their labors.

The church, with its spacious auditorium where the sessions will be held, and the large lecture room, which is for committee meetings, together with the grounds, have been put in order. A list of over two hundred and fifty delegates who will be present is just published. Some fifty more are to be listed. The attendance of delegates, ministerial and lay, will touch near the three hundred mark. Lexington has thrown open her doors to the Synod, and all denominations will entertain the delegates.

To-morrow night at 7:30 Retiring-Moderator Hooper, of Christiansburg, will deliver an historic address on the Synod of 1864, which will be deeply interesting. The address of Rev. Dr. Moses D. Hoge, of Richmond, will be another gem of the occasion. Rev. W. H. Sheppard, the colored missionary to Africa, is booked for an address during the week.

Yesterday Dr. Jacob Henry Smith, of North Carolina, preached morning and night. Twenty-nine years ago the Virginia Synod met here, and one of the great questions under discussion was chaplains for the Confederate service.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

The Cool Wave Will Decrease the Number of New Cases.

BRUNSWICK, GA., Oct. 15 .- Twentyseven new cases of yellow fever were reported to-day-seven whites and twenty

B. C. Bodet, secretary of the Health Board, has compiled the following reca-pitulation: Cases under treatment, 66 whites, 174 colored—total, 240; discharged, 118 whites, 105 colored—total, 223; dead, 22 whites, 3 colored—total, 25.

The confident prediction of Surgeon Faget that this continued cool wave will Faget that this continued cool wave win greatly decrease the number of new cases after six days has buoyed the people up considerably. There are some, however, who disagree with Surgeon Faget, and all are positive that the low death rate to date should not be counted as a sign that date should not be counted as a sign that mortality will not greatly increase as this cool wave has caught many under treatment who are practically unprepared for the cold. There are two new cases at Jesup—one a negro whose name is unknown and Mrs. Warren, making eleven now under treatment at Jesup.

Dr. J. J. Knott, of Atlanta, arrived in Brunswick to-day for the purpose of making observations that will help him in his new theory that turpentine and ozone new theory that turpentine and ozone will cure yellow fever. He will hardly test his treatment here, judging from his conversation to-day, but will make observations. Should he make a success of his "cure," he will have a great deal of free advertising. Dr. Robert L. E. Burford is out again, after an attack of fever. Mayo T. W. Lamb in an interview to-day, ex pressed his sincere appreciation of the work the Hon. Henry G. Turner, the member of Congress from this dis-trict, had done, and is now doing for the stricken of Brunswick. By private constricken of Brunswick. By private con-tribution of a liberal nature and personal labor in Washington, Mr. Turner has shown his feeling for the people here and his anxiety to relieve their dis-tress. His work has been quiet, but none the less effective. V. Barkuloo, treasurer, is the only official left of Rush Lodge, I. O. O. F. The death of T. T. Waff, Grand Master, relieved the lodge of all remaining officers except lodge of all remaining officers except Burkuloo, who is a past grand. The small death rate of the scourge has been made upon an uncertain basis, and be-fore the real conflict is over. The sickness has been of a very severe type, but has been treated with the utmost skill and by the most energetic physicians. The harmony of the forces and the sympathy and the patriotism of the management has made a big count on

JUDGE STAPLES IN GOOCHLAND. Discusses State Issues and Compliments

Mr. Cleveland. GOOCHLAND COURTHOUSE, VA.,

Oct. 16.-Special.-Hon. W. R. Staples spoke here to-day to a large crowd. In his speech the Judge referred to the good State government of the past years under Democratic rule. The Democrats settled the State debt. The public free school sysparty has made no distinction between the white and colored; that is to tay, the colored people receive as much of the school fund per capita as the whites. Asylums for the unfortunate have been provided, and the finances well managed. He next alluded to the Anderson-McCormick election law. This, he said, has been the law since 1885.

Next the Judge spoke of the old parties, and his eulogy of some of their statesman was grand.

He pointed to the fact that under the uninterrupted Democratic rule before the war the farmers were prosperous and The speaker referred to Grover Cleveland in the most complimentary terms, and what he said was received with hearty applause.

Republicans and a few Populists listened attentively along with the Demo-

DEATH OF MR. JOHN W. JONES.

A Well-Known Lynchburg Citizen Passes AWRY.

LYNCHBURG, VA., Oct. 16.-Special.-This city was shocked Sunday by the announcement of the sudden death of Mr. John W. Jones, a well-known and worthy citizen. Mr. Jones died about 11 o'clock at his home on lower ldalu street, from heart failure. He had been treated for some time for another complaint, but while confined to his room, his condition was thought to be much

The deceased was a native of Fauquier county, but came to Lynchburg at an early age. He was sixty-six years of early age. age. Few men stood higher in the esteem of our people than he. Decrased was a member of the City Council at the time of his death, and had served several terms previous.

The City Council, at a called meeting to-day, passed suitable resolutions

REPEALED BY SATURDAY. Mr. Tucker Says the Bill Will Be Passed by Then.

AMHERST C. H., VA., Oct. 16.-Special. -Four speakers, Hons. John E. Massey, Harry D. Flood, J. Brad Beverley and Edward Carty, the last two Populists, addressed the masses here to-day. The Populists declined a joint discussion peremptorily. Harry Tucker came late in the evening, but made a short talk, in which he made the assertion that the Sherman law would be repealed by next

A Well-Digger Drowned.

CITY POINT, Oct. 14.—Special.—Information has been received of the drowning of Ive Woldridge, a well-digger of this county. He was in charge of Davis ochre lighter, coming from Richmond, and fell overboard near Dutch Gap Saturdes at

CAROLINA'S BISHOP.

CONSECRATION OF THE REF. DE. JUSEPH B. CHESNIRE.

The Highly Interesting Ceremony Takes Place Sundady at Tarboro-Other Old North State News.

TARBORO, N. C., Oct. 16,-There was a most impressive religious ceremony here yesterday-the consecration of Rev. Dr. Joseph Blount Cheshire, Jr., as Protestant Episcopal Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina. It took place in Calvary church, of which the Bishop's venerable father has, for fifty years, been rector, and was attended by many persons of religious or social prominence from this and other States. Governor Carr was among those who attended. Carr was among those who attended. The ceremony began at 11 o'clock, and the handsome church was filled. There was a large procession of clergy, six bishops being present, and about forty priests. Right Rev. Theodore Benedict Lyman, D. D., LL. D., was the consecrator. His assistants were Bishops A. Watson, of the Diocese of East Carolina, and Capers, of the Diocese of South Carolina. The presentation was by Bishops Weed, of Florida, and Sessions, of Loucitons.

weed, of the late and because was preached by Bishop Dudley, of the Diocese of Kentucky. The sattendant presbyters were Rev. Drs. Pettigrew, Murdoch and Wingate, of the Diocese of North Carolina. The morning prayer was said by Rev. Israel Harding, of Washington, and Rev. I. McK. Pittinger, of Raleigh. Rev. Julian E. Ingle, of Henderson, read the certificate of election; Rev. James A. Wiston, of Hickory, the consent of the standing committee of the Church in the United States to the election, and Rev. Dr. Matthew M. Marshall, of Raleigh, president of the standing committee of the diocese, read the consent of the House of Hishops.

Last May the convention of the clergy

the diocese, read the consent of the House of Bishops.

Last May the convention of the clergy and laity of this diocese met here, and after a long debate decided to elect an assistant or coadjutor bishop. Bishop Lyman, who is now both old and feeble, urged that he be given this assistance. June the 27th was set as the date of an adjourned session of the convention, and on the 28th, after two days' balloting, and on the sixty-third ballot, Dr. Cheshire was chosen.

Bishop Cheshire was born at Tarboro in 1850. He is a graduate of Trinity College, Hartford, and for a time was a teacher at Ellicott City, Md. He studied law and practiced at Baltimore and later at Tarboro. In 1876 he was ordained to the diaconate by the late Bishop Atkinson, of this diocese, at Tarboro, N. C. Three years later he took charge of the Chapel of the Cross, at Chapel Hill, N. C., and in 1880 was ordained a priest by Bishop Atkinson. A couple of years later he became rector of St. Peter's church, at Charlotte, where he remained until his consecration yesterday. He has always been an earnest church worker, and has established five missions. A few years ago the University of North Carolina gave him the honor of the D. D. desree. He was prominently mentioned a year or two since in connection with the bishoprics of Georgia and Alabama

This event recalis some incidents in the gia and Alabama

gia and Alabama

This event recalls some incidents in the early history of this parish. It is the oldest in the diocese. It was here the early conventions of the Church were held. In Calvary Parish the first convention of the Church in North Carolina met in of the Church in North Carolina met in the year 1790, and in this little city the centennial anniversary of this memorable event was celebrated in the year 1890. In old Cavalry church, just one hundred years ago next May, the Rev. Charles Pettigrew was elected Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina, being the first Bishop ever elected for the diocese. He was a native of the State of North Carolina; and here the Rev. Dr. Cheshire was consecrated Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina. He was born and reared in this parish. He was born and reared in this parish, the Bishop-elect, Petilgrew, was never consecrated, an untimely death having removed him, so Bishop Cheshire is the first son of North Carolina elevated to this high and sacred office in his own

One of the attendant presbyters, the of Bishop-elect Pettigrew, and assisted i the consecration here, where one hundred years ago his grandfather was elected

In his sermon yesterday, on the occasion of the consecration, Bishop Dudley's theme was "Witness of the Continued and Unbroken Episcopate to the Resurrection of Christ." The Bishop preached from the choice of Matthias, and spoke for an hour, with his usual eloquence fervor, of the divine appointment of an authorized and qualified testimony to the great and crowning fact of the resurrec-tion as essential to the continuity of the faith, the assurance of the reason, and

"Witnesses for Christ, ye are," ex-claimed the Bishop; "chosen of God at the first, and continued in His Church to apostles, yet witnesses from your regen-erated souls and your renewed and en-lightened consciences to His living power and grace." Continuing in this strain, the Bishop spoke of the power of such a real his-torical testimony to carry conviction to every earnest and fair mind, because it was the testimony of faithful men, whose authority history accredited as being one and continuous from the apostles, and whose influence was great and strong and permanent only as it was real and per-

SENATOR ZEB. VANCE.

He Will Deliver an Address To-Day at the Fair at Raleigh. RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 16.-Special .-

Notice was to-day given by the officers of the North Carolina Confederate Veterans Association that its meeting will be held Thursday, in the grand stand, be held Thursday, in the grand stand, at the Fair grounds, in this city.

United States Senator Zebulon B. Vance arrived in the city to-day, and will deliver an address at the State Fair to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. The weather is faultless and a tremenday.

dous crowd is expected.

dous crowd is expected.

Governor Carr, Bishop Lyman and others, returned here to-day from Tarboro, where Bishop J. B. Cheshire was consecrated yesterday.

Governor Carr recently appointed State directors and a State proxy, who were favorable to surrender the exemption of the North Carolina Railroad Company from taxation. At their meeting some time ago, the directors took action on that line, but it was to be ratified by time ago, the directors took action on that line, but it was to be ratified by the stockholders. They called a meet-ing of the latter for the purpose. The private stockholders did not attend, so there was no quorum. It is rumored that the stockholders would not attend because they were opposed to Governor Carr's policy of surrendering the exemp-tion, and resorted to this means to do.

tion, and resorted to the feat his purpose.

News is received from Beaufort that the six-year-old daughter of Mrs. Sarah the six-year-old daughter of who lives about seven miles that the six-year old sale to death by the Gutherl, who lives about seven miles from there, was crushed to death by the wheels of a log carriage.

A heavy frost fell here this morning, but the Commissioner of Agriculture reports that it did no damage.

TO DENGUNCE LYNCHINGS.

North Carolina Editors to Assail This Out lawry in That State.

cussing the many recent lynchings in the country, says:

The frequent lynchings of late in the South, though few of them have occurred in North Carolina, have caused the leading men of this State to give the subject much serious thought, and the

F THOSE 11,000 SUITS OUR Manufacturing House sent out to their trade---we got the best. Took the Cream. The cost to us---is the cost to you. In business, and the buyer of a thousand, you couldn't get them cheaper than you can walk into our store and select one. The one you like. Whether it ought to bring $18---or $35---THE WHOLE-

NOT A CENT MORE,

SALE PRICE IS OUR PRICE. This beats the biggest bargain time you ever heard tell of-'cause it's legitimate---'cause it's a bona fide cost sale.

Nobody knows of finer garments than we make. Atlantic to the Pacific they are famous. They typify tailor. making. Business Suits-Dress Suits-Stylish-Just Made.

A. SAKS & Co.

Wholesale Retailers.

Think when this opportunity comes-be. fore you've bought-before the season is fairly under way-before you've hardly thought of a chance. But your minds'll be made up in a minute now. Let the tall men come-the short-the thin-and the stout. What a community of well-dressed men this'll be when these Suits are distributed! On separate tables.

Wholesale prices-remember-and we don't keep your money unless you keep the clothes.

editors of the leading newspapers have akreed not to spare words in denouncing lynch law and mob rule wherever they find them, and to use every available means to stamp out this form of violence in this State.

North Carolina has long been noted for the carolina has long been noted for North Carolina has long been noted for the conservative character of its citizens, and there has probably been fewer lynchings here than in any other Southern State, Still, there are occasional lynchings. Continuing, the writer quotes Dr. T. B. Kingsbury, the editor of the Wilmington Messenger, as saying:

"The South owes it to the preservation of law order and civilization to stamp.

of law, order and civilization to stamp out the widespread lawlessness that afflots ourses and degrades it. It is grow ing all the time. At first the red-handed murderers and the beastly violators of white women and children, were the victims of speedy justice, as administer-ed by Judge Lynch. But like all vice it has grown and widened with indulgence, and people are murdered for other causes, and even for opinion's sake. It is an age of lawlessness, of violence, of crime. It is five times worse to-day in the whole United States than it is in England."

Threatened to Burn North Carolina Cotton Gins.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 16.-A dispatch from Shelby, N. C., says that White Caps are threatening the owners of all the cotton gins in that neighborhood that unless they stop ginning until the price unless they stop ginning until the price of cotton reaches 10 cents per pound their gins will be burned to the ground. Captain S. D. Randall, a ginner of the lower end of the county, was the first to receive one of these anonymous letters. So far he has refused to stop ginning, and is guarding his gin with a shotgun every night.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Board of Fire Commissioners was held at fire headquarters last night. Present: Messrs. J. H. Frischkorn, president; Frank P. Burke, Joseph L. Levy, Charles F. Taylor and G. W. Taylor.

The board ordered the erection of a fire-alarm box at the southeast corner of Seventh and Broad streets.
It was also ordered that the doors to all engine houses in the eastern portion of the city be changed so as to open activation.

utwardly. R. L. Cardwell was elected a substitute

R. L. Cardwell was elected a substitute in Engine Company No. 6.

James McDonough & Co. asked the board to make good to them damages alleged to have been caused by fire-alarm wires in Friday night's storm. They claimed that the horses attached to one of their carriages were shocked by control of their carriages were shocked by control of their carriages. tact with wires prostrated that night, and becoming frightened ran away and smashed the vehicle.

smashed the vehicle.

The papers were referred to the City Attorney for his opinion as to the liability of the city in the matter.

James B. Brown was elected to fill a vacancy in No. 6 Engine Company, caused by the death of James H. Gibbs.

The contract for 1,470 feet of lead encased cable for the Fire Alarm Department was awarded to W. R. Brixey, of New York, Gaines & Glover are the Richmond agents for Mr. Brixey. The price was thirty-eight cents per foot.

The contract for 1,550 feet of 15 con-The contract for 1,550 feet of 15 conductor house cable was awarded the Safety Insulated Wire Co., who are represented here by Captain Andrew Pizzini, at 23.7-8 cents per foot. After much routine business the board adjourned.

A Baby Prince in Roumanta. A Baby Prince in Roumanta.

BUCHAREST, Oct. 16.—The Crown Princess of Roumania, formerly the Princess Marie of Edinburg, gave birth to a son to-day. Both she and the baby are doing well. Dr. Wm. S. Playfair, physician accoucher to the Duchess of Edinburg, is in attendance. The Princess was married on last January 19th.

THE TOUCH OF ICY FINGER. Jack Frost Makes a H. avy Onslaught and Warning Given of Another Visit.

The first real touch of autumn was felt vesterday morning when Jack Frost laid his icy fingers on the green of Indian The bottom lands around the city were covered with the veil whose touch leaves a sombre garb on lowly verdue and paints brighter hues on the trees above. Farmers from the surrounding country report that the frost was very heavy in every direction and that whatever was perishable in the fields was killed. A few late truck patches, however were about all that was left. The farmers had taken time by the forelock, and ers had taken time by the forelock, and the tobacco had been cut and housed, and the other crops laid by.

In the city with its many sheltering walls, heated chimneys, and smoking stacks, the frost is rarely seen, yet many a Richmond lady yesterday morning mourned the damage to her favorite plants, too long left out of the pit or green-house.

The ghost-like appearance of many flower beds last night showed that the first warning had been heeded and that many newspapers were spread in protecting array over my lady's pets.

The following hulleting ready of years. The following bulletin received yester-day at noon shows that these precautions were well considered:

Washington, D. C., Oct. 16, 1893.
R. A. Dunloy, Secretary Chamber of Commerce, Richmond, Va.
Fair. Heavy frost to-night.
HARRINGTON.

DENIES THE "MOCK MARRIAGE," No Such Ceremony Took Place Between Miss Clark and Dr. Taylor.

The subjoined statement from the justice of the peace at Newport News who was said to have performed the "mock marriage" ceremony between Miss Elizabeth Clarke and Dt. Taylor, of Hampton, has been received at this office:

Newport News, Va. Oct. 16, 5233.

To the Editor of The Richmond Times,

Richmond, Va.: Dear Sir,-The story telegraphed from Newport News, Va., to the New York World a few days since, stating that Miss Elizabeth Clarke had been inadvertently married to a Norfolk gentleman, as the result of a mock ceremony, performed in jest by me, a justice of the peace, during an evening's entertainment, is incorrect. It was telegraphed by a correspondent who failed to ascertain the truth of his information before giving publicity such a report concerning a young lady universally respected and admired throughout Virginia. Please publish this statement in justice to Miss Clarke. C. R. HASKINS, J. P.

Captain Richardson, yard conductor of the James River Division of the Chesa-peake and Ohio railroad, while signalling for teams to stop at the Ninth street crossing Saturday evening, was knocked down by a vehicle seating three persons, not heeding his warning. Captain Richardson was cut about the head and face and otherwise injured. He was getting on very nicely yesterday.

George Dabney Wootten. Mr George Dabney Wootten died in the William-sburg Asylum Sunday, where he had been confined for nearly two years. He was for many years a well-known figure on the streets of Richmond.

John W. Quay.

Mr. John W. Quay. Sr., member of the well-known firm of Blount & Quay, brick contractors, died Sunday night at his residence on west Grace street after a long illness, aged sixty-five years.

Deceased was a member of Richmond Randolph Lodge, No. 10, A. F. and A. M.; Virginia Lodge, No. 2, Knights of Pythias, and Richmond Lodge, No. 219, Knights of Honor. He had been for nearly twenty years treasurer of the last named lodge. He was a consistent member of the First Baptist church, from which place the funeral will take place at 3 P. M. to-morrow.

$50 Worth of Goods for $1 CASH and $1 per WEEK

505 EAST BROAD STREET.

Low Prices and Liberal Terms. We desire to call your attention to our stock of FURNITURE, CARPETS AND STOVES.
In the FURNITURE DEPARTMENT will be found Walnut, Oak and Poplar Chamber Suits; Hair-Cloth, Wool Plush, Silk Plush, and Tapestry Parlor Suits. Sideboards, Extension Tables. Lounges, Reed and Rattan Rookers, Pictures and Clocks.

CARPET DEPARTMENT
OIL-CLOTHS, BUGS, ART-SQUARES, Erg.

SQUARE AND ROUND, HEATING STOVES.

SQUARE AND ROUND HEATING STOVES. COOK STOVES AND RANGES, We will sell you any of the above goods at the lowest prices for CASH or on our LIBERAL TERMS.

ROTHERT & CO., - - 505 East Broad Street.

DRESTON BELYIN, Sine art Surniture, GOVERNOR STREET.

No. 18 GOVERNOR STREET.

Sole Agent for the Richmond Cedar Works' Celebrated MOTH-PROOF

RED CEDAR CHEST. TIMES LIBRARY COUPON.

Our price to sender No. 1. THE REVERIES OF A BACHELOR; OR, A WORK OF THE HEART. By Is MARVEL.

No. 2. LAYS OF ANCIENT ROME (Blastrated.) By LORD MAGAULAY. No. 3. TILLYLOSS SCANDAL. A new work by J. M. Barrie, author of "The Little Mis-

No. 4. THE HOUSE OF THE SEVEN GABLES. By NATHANIEL HAWTHORNS.

No. 5. CRANFORD. By MRS. GASKRIA. No. 5. THE COMING BACE. By LORD LYTTON. No. 7. DEEASI LIFE. By IR MARVEL.

No. 8. FRANKENSTEIN: OR, THE MODERN PROMETHEUS. By Mas. Sarlight

No. 2. A EOOK OF GOLDEN DEEDS. By C. M. YONGE. No. 10. MOSSES FROM AN OLD MANSE. By NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE. No. 11. THE SCAELET LEFTER. By NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE.

No. 12 PASSAYS OF ELIA. By CHARLES LAMB. No. 13 VICAR OF WAKEFIELD (Bustrated). By OLIVER GOLDSMITS.

No 14 TWICE-TOLD TALES. Py NATHANIEL HAWTHOUSE. No. 18. FAUL AND VIRGINIA. By BERNARDIN DE SAINT PIERRE.
No. 16. "TORY OF AN AUDICAN FARM." By (Ralph from Olive Schreiner.
No. 17. LAYS OF THE SCOTTISH CAVALIERS. By WR. EDMONSTOUNE AYTOUN.
No. 18. LUCILE. By OWEN MEREDITH (Robert Lord Lyston.)

Six of the above coupon cut from The Times for six successive days and sent with eight cents in coin to The Times Book Department will entitle you to any one of the above book Fill out the following executily.

Name...... Street..... Address TIMES BOOK DEPARTMENT, Times Building, Richmond, Va. Watch the list carefully, as new books are constantly added.

Richmond: Charles H. Brown and wife to Elizabeth S. Lowry and George E. Browning, 411-4 feet on south side Holly to Elizabeth S. Lowry and George E. Browning, 411-4 feet on south side Holly street, between Pine and Belvidere, S; Epps Hargrave to L. R. E. Hargrave, his wife, one-half interest in 30 feet on west side Third street, between Byrd and Arch, subject to deed of trust of 2,500; Simon Robinson to Priscella Webb, 20 feet on south side Boyd street, near Kinney; Louisa Sadler's trustee to Sarah E. Lowry and Charles H. and George E. Browning, 411-4 feet on south side E. Lowry and Charles H. and George E. Browning, 411-4 feet on south side Holly street, between Pine and Belvidere, 55; W. A. L. Seal and wife to Louis A. Fox, 15 feet on west side Randolph street, near Claiborne, subject to deed of trust for $700. $1,100; Samuel Steinlein and wife to J. L. Rhodes, 485-6 feet on east side Sixth street, between Clay and Leigh, $3,500; S. A. Williams and wife to Christianna A. Hernaman, 251-2 feet on west side Laurel street, near China, $1,200.

$1,200. Henrico: John Engle's devisees to

City road, $600; Sarah French to Sarah McCarrail, 30 feet on north side Cedar street, near Baker, $350; Daniel B. Wil-liams to George Roy, 15 feet on Winston street, $43.

Baltimore News Notes. Col. John L. Thomas, a prominent member of the Baltimore bar, a leader of the Republican party of Maryland, and a very well-known citizen of Baltimore, died suddenly Sunday at his residence, 1316 Linden avenue, in the fity-ninth year of his Archbishop Redmond, of New Zealand, who has come here to attend Carlinal Gibbons' jubilee, preached Sunday at the Cathedral.

Thomas J. Goodrich, deputy warden at the jail, died at his residence, No. 106 Pleasant street. Prederick Simms, aged eight years, son of the keeper of the Lazarette lighthouse, was drowned.